

Poplar Farm Weekly Newsletter

Tuesday 20 September 2022

Thank you to everyone who joined us for the Y1-Y4 'year ahead' meetings last week. I hope you found them useful. For those of you unable to attend, please see class stories on Class Dojo, where teachers have shared information from the meetings.

Article 29 - Goals of education

Some parents have been asking how to help their children read at home, and one simple way is to model to the children the enjoyment of reading yourself. For this reason, we have set up a Poplar Book Swap in the main school foyer for parents. Staff have donated some good quality pre-loved books for you to enjoy. Please return when you have read the book, or simply donate a different book for other parents to enjoy.

Celebration Assemblies

From this week, parents will once again be invited to join us in Celebration Assembly on a Friday if their child is the class Super Star.

You will receive either a message on dojo, or a paper invitation on the Thursday.

Assembly starts at 2.45pm on a Friday, so please arrive promptly if you can join us.

Article 31 - Right to take part in activities

Car Park

A final reminder - if there are not spaces in the car park, drive out of the car park and park somewhere else. Double parking is dangerous and thoughtless. One day last week, there were 11 empty spaces, but as many cars were double parked. This must stop.

Last week, some staff members received verbal abuse from parents when arriving in the morning, or when asking parents to move double parked cars, enabling them to leave school at the end of their working day. This is unacceptable behaviour, and must stop. Abuse towards staff will not be tolerated, and may result in you being banned from the school site.
